Wayland Mass
Sep 13 1916

To The Trustees
Wayland Public Library.

Gentlemen, I beg respectfully to ask for a little raise of pay for my services as Janitor. When the Trustees voted to open 3 dys instead of two it doubled the work leaving in the winter — now I have done the work for two winters past and the enormous raise in the cost of living I should appreciate a raise of 50 Cents a week if it is possible and if it is impossible I must go without —

Thanking you for all past favors

I am Gentlemen

Respectfully Yours

J. C Vincent

Sept 15 1915

Mon bon Oncle

Gentlemen,

The Newton Group of Librarians met at Wayland Public Library Wed. Oct. 31, 1917 with an attendance of 25.

The following program was carried out:-

10.00 A.M. Meeting called to order by the Chairman, Mr. Dougherty of Newton.

The Secretary's report was read and the invitation of Watertown for the next meeting accepted.

10.15 The collection of books and periodicals for soldiers: Mr. John A. Lowe.

Mr. Lowe told of the work that is to be done during the fall and winter, also in particular of his work at Ayer, with the A. L. A., the Commission, and at the Boston Public Library.

This was followed by a discussion of some of the desirable and undesirable books of the fall's publications.

At 1 the meeting adjourned and luncheon was served by the courtesy of the Trustees of the Wayland Library.

The Group extended a hearty vote of thanks to the Trustees for their hospitality.

Margaret E. Wheeler.
Librarian

The Newton Neighborhood Library Group met at the Wayland Library Wednesday morning, Oct. 25 at 10 o'clock, twenty-one members and guests being present.

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman of the Group - Mr. Dougherty of Newton and the following program was carried out:-

Secretary's report.

Business -

Some light on Cataloging Darkness: a paper by Mr. Harold J. Dougherty, followed by general discussion and questions.

Books! What of value have you found in this fall's production.

The meeting adjourned at 11.45 and luncheon was served furnished by the Trustees of the Wayland Library.

A hearty vote of thanks was given to the Trustees for their courtesy and hospitality.

Dear Mrs. Parker,

Thanks for the Orchard.

I am glad to thank you for giving it to me. Everything and Hospitality.

The Neighborhood Group of Libraries met with the Wayland Library on Wednesday Oct. 27. at 10.30 with an attendance of 37.

The records of the last meeting were read and approved. The time was then devoted to the discussion of new books. They were divided into six classes namely: (1) fiction, (2) drama, poetry and essays, (3) technical, (4) travel, (5) household arts, and (6) children's. Each group was assigned to some librarian in the group with a time limit of ten minutes. It proved a helpful and interesting program.

At twelve o'clock a most delicious luncheon was served, provided by the trustees of the library.

A most hearty vote of thanks was given the library, trustees and librarian for their courtesy and hospitality.